Why should the individual win the Champion Award?

1,000 word maximum citation on why the individual should be considered for this award. It is vital that employers include data that is specific and relevant so that the judges can see why they should be considered for a specific Award.

Supporting evidence

Nominations should be backed up by evidence of the impact of their actions and testimonies from some of those who have benefited as a result. No word limit. Supporting evidence can be sent by post or via email (using this application form and attachments). Please note, if the individual is shortlisted you will need to post six copies of supporting evidence.

Please complete the application form and return to awards@workingmums.co.uk together with any supporting evidence by Friday July 15th 2011. Alternatively you can post your form and supporting evidence to:
