Why should your organisation win the Workingmums.co.uk Innovation Award?

1,000 word maximum citation on why your organisation should be considered for this award. It is vital that employers include data that is specific and relevant to the category they choose to enter.

Supporting evidence

Employers should strengthen their application by including case studies which are relevant to the category applied for as well as evidence that policies are being monitored and developed, such as statistics on take-up of policies. No word limit. You may choose to supply supporting evidence in hard copy. Please note, if your entry is shortlisted and you have supplied supporting evidence in hard copy, you will be required to provide 6 further sets of supporting evidence for judges.

Please complete the application form and return to awards@workingmums.co.uk together with any supporting evidence by Friday July 15th 2011. Alternatively you can post your form and supporting evidence to:
